" A WEEK OFF "

Father is advised by his boss that he may have a week off, and take a vacation. So home he goes to spread the glad news among the family. This is fine news to the wife, who immediately invites the boarder to come with them. Besides this pest, father has three little ones who cannot be left home, and the six start off in the family flivver. The flivver, to avoid any arguments, has two steering wheels, but father and friend wife usually compromise and have it the wife's way.

At last they reach the country, but the stay is a very short one. While father sleeps a curious bee lights on his nose and leaves his impression. Father is rushed home, and put to bed. The doctor, who is called in, suggests that father take a vacation - and father, knowing what a vacation means with his household along, especially the boarder, falls into a faint.
